

Jasmine is a passionate cook and a Photographer from China. Through her photography, she captured photos of the town she lived in the US, which is at Bellevue, Washington. Through the photos she captured, she is leading you to walk into her life and showing you what it is like. She chose to shoot about where she lived in order to keep this unforgettable memory before she moves to another state for college.

The Place I Live

XiaoQing (Jasmine) Yu

In this book, you will see photos that have been captured in variety of different angles and with different Photoshop techniques. This book contains photographs shot in Bellevue, Washington.